SHARED CLINICAL DECISION MAKING IN THE 2020 RECOMMENDED ADULT IMMUNIZATION SCHEDULE

Presenter: Jason M. Cota, PharmD, MS, BCIDP
Vice Chair and Professor of Pharmacy, UIW Feik School of Pharmacy
San Antonio, TX

Upon completion of this activity, pharmacists will be able to:

1. Identify the primary reason for changes in pneumococcal vaccine recommendations in patients 65 years of age or older.
2. Define shared clinical decision making when considering immunization with human papillomavirus vaccine (HPV) and the 13-valent pneumococcal conjugate vaccine (PCV13).
3. Given a patient case, determine which vaccines are routinely recommended according to the 2020 Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP) recommended adult immunization schedule.

Upon completion of this activity, pharmacy technicians will be able to:

1. Differentiate between the 23-valent pneumococcal polysaccharide vaccine and the 13-valent pneumococcal conjugate vaccine.
2. Identify an age at which human papillomavirus and pneumococcal vaccines are routinely recommended.
3. Describe how the pharmacy technician may increase adult immunization coverage rates.

Activity Type: Knowledge-based activity

The University of the Incarnate Word Feik School of Pharmacy is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education as a provider of continuing pharmacy education. This program is designed for pharmacists and pharmacy technicians to gain knowledge related to shared clinical decision making and adult immunizations. There are no fees for this knowledge-based CPE program. The pharmacist or pharmacy technician will only receive credit for programs after receiving a 70% on a post-test and an activity evaluation form is completed and submitted through FSOP's Learning Express CE website (<https://uiwfsop.learningexpressce.com/>). For detailed instructions on how to use the site, see the link at <https://pharmacy.uiw.edu/subsite/pharmacy/continuing-pharmacy-education/index.html>. Participants will have six weeks to complete the post-test and evaluation form. The deadline to submit the post-test and evaluation form to obtain CE credit is October 7, 2020.
